DOWNTOWN DURHAM

Downtown Durham is the historic and geographic soul of a vibrant, diverse, and creative Southern city. Home to several landmarks on the National Register of Historic Places and alive with food, arts, culture, and dozens of events throughout the year, it's an area that offers something new with every visit.

Downtown is comprised of seven unique districts, each with its own personality. They are easily explored by foot or by a free ride on the Bull City Connector, a bus route connecting downtown and Duke University.

Named the South's Tastiest Town by Southern Living magazine, Durham also continues to rack up dining accolades. Downtown serves as a hot spot for unique, local restaurants – find complete listings in this guide and look for this symbol ★ designating those that have received national praise.

This is your guide to discover all that downtown has to offer, complete with district profiles; listings for dining, shopping, and entertainment options; as well as a detailed foldout map.

PARDON OUR DUST!

As you start exploring, you might notice construction and renovation throughout Downtown Durham. It's all part of an ongoing renaissance that will provide even more for visitors and residents to experience, including new office & retail space and a 27-story skyscraper. Please excuse the temporary inconvenience!

For the most current information on new projects and listings, visit durham-nc.com or downtowndurham.com.

American Tobacco

A wide-angle photograph of a baseball stadium at night, filled with spectators. The field is brightly lit by stadium lights, and the outfield fence is visible in the background.

- See a Broadway show at DPAC (Durham Performing Arts Center)
- Catch a baseball game or shop for souvenirs at the Durham Bulls Athletic Park.
- Enjoy a meal in the American Tobacco campus and snap a pic of the Lucky Strike Tower.

BRIGHTLEAF & WAREHOUSE

Brightleaf Square became a premier destination when turn-of-the-century tobacco warehouses were adapted into retail, dining, and office spaces.

The result is two distinctive brick buildings that create an anchor point for many surrounding businesses. Collectively, the area is a bustling retail center during the day and a lively nightlife spot after the sun goes down.

Adjacent to the Brightleaf District is the Warehouse District, which includes the former Liggett & Myers tobacco buildings that have been converted into restaurants, shops, offices & biotech space as well as residential units.

TOP ATTRACTIONS

- Explore the historic Brightleaf Square, where you'll often find live music during the summer months
- Learn about the Bull City's past by viewing rotating exhibits at The History Hub

Central Park

Central Park is home to the Durham Farmers' Market and many other community events throughout the year. It also boasts a skate park, art studios, and grassy lawns to relax upon.

The northern side of the Central Park District, also known as the DIY District, marks the northern edge of downtown. There you will find a hotbed of live music, bars, and restaurants, as well as a local theater. This is also a common spot for many of Durham's food trucks to park and serve, with rotating cuisines that add to the area's diverse offerings.

TOP ATTRACTIONS

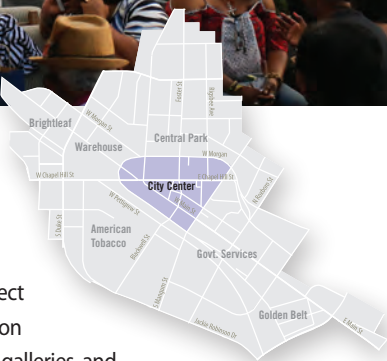

- Shop for fresh produce and locally made products at the Durham Farmers' Market
- See a college baseball game at the Historic Durham Athletic Park

CITY CENTER

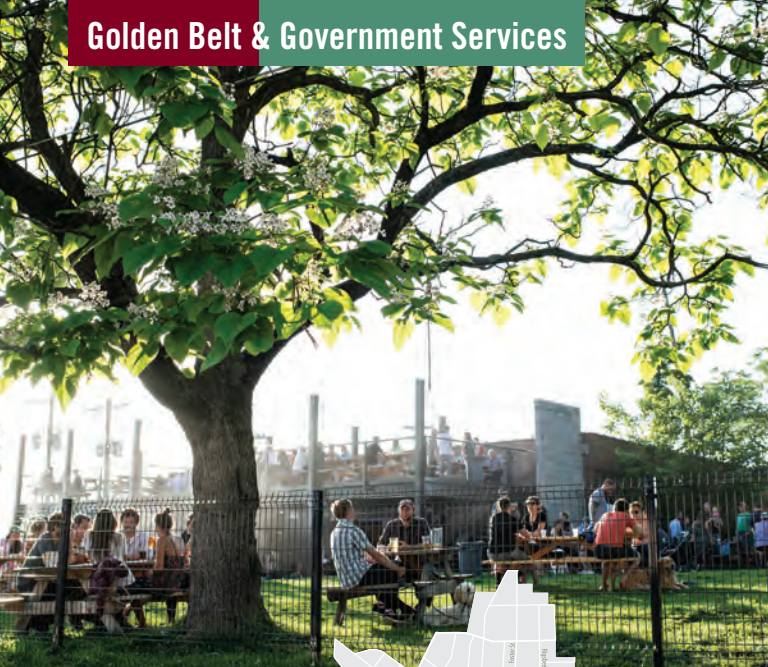

The City Center District, home to the Visitor Info Center, is what one would expect from a city experiencing a full-on renaissance. Restaurants, bars, galleries, and local shops make the area exciting, day or night. City Center is also home to free cultural attractions, as well. Visit the Durham Arts Council and 21c Museum Hotel to see rotating exhibits, or stop by the History Hub, Durham's local history museum. Much of the architecture is original and ensures that Durham retains its historic character. City Center is a compact district with the mix of local culture and commercial enterprise that makes Durham special.

TOP ATTRACTIONS

- Visit the free, 24-7 art museum at 21c Museum Hotel
- See a performance at the historic Beaux Arts-style Carolina Theatre
- For directions and recommendations, stop by the Visitor Info Center

Golden Belt & Government Services

Golden Belt is a restored textile mill repurposed to house art studios, retail, office, service businesses and offices, and residential lofts.

It is the largest all-historic, LEED Gold-certified campus in the Southeast and home to working artists' studios and ROOM 100, an art gallery. The seven acre campus is situated in a neighborhood of historic homes.

The Golden Belt neighborhood borders the Government Services District, which is home to most city and county offices and a growing selection of restaurants and bars.

TOP ATTRACTIONS

- Third Fridays are a great opportunity to see artists at work in the restored Golden Belt textile mill
- Take a short drive to the historic Hayti Heritage Center, a former sanctuary now housing an art gallery and performance hall
